

Audio Encyclopedia

Men of Empire

This first CD-ROM in the projected Audio Encyclopedia covers many of the major male singers of the British Empire born in the 19th century. The recordings vary widely in their inherent interest and audio quality. Since our purpose has been to provide insight into the wealth of vocal talent of that era, we have processed the data only to the extent needed for fair representation and supplied them in modest sound quality.

Singers John McCormack
 Peter Dawson
 Horace Stevens
 Fraser Gange

Various singers Norman Allin, George Baker, Andrew Black, John Brownlee, Tom Burke, Lionello Cecil (Cecil Sherwood), John Coates, Ben Davies, Tudor Davies, Harry Dearth, Hubert Eisdell, Gervase Elwes, Louis Graveure (Wilfred Douthitt), Harry Plunkett Greene, Percy Heming, Roy Henderson, Sir Georg Henschel, Herbert Heyner, Joseph Hislop, Walter Hyde, Edward Johnson, Parry Jones, Edward Lloyd, Malcolm McEachern, Frank Mullings, Heddle Nash, John O'Sullivan, Alfred Piccaver, Robert Radford, Frederick Ranalow, Sir Charles Santley, Robert Watkin-Mills, Harry Wendon, Walter Widdop

Audio Encyclopedia